Commissioners' Report:

Commissioner Sapp stated Hummingbird Properties is moving dirt. It looks like that will be taking off pretty quick. Glad we could work them into the city, they have lots of potential growth for the city. There was discussion between the commissioners regarding the rezoning decision made by the Board of Aldermen. Commissioner Sapp stated there would be a workshop before the next Board of Aldermen meeting for the Aldermen and concerned homeowners of Middleton Crossing to come to an amicable conclusion. Alderman Clay said the homeowners and the property owner/builder can sit down and discuss the concerns. There was more discussion between commissioners on this decision. Alderman Clay stated we need to speak with City Administrator Woolford regarding a city development workshop. The commissioners brought up several items for the workshop or as discussion items on the agenda. The topics are: reviewing the rezoning classification, the growth plan for zoning or transitional zoning, the city's transportation plan, a sidewalk plan for Main St. and Broadway, storm water drainage plans, future city planning with income from planned developments and GIS Software for present city utilities and infrastructure.

Chairman Williamson called for a motion to adjourn, July 12, 2016, Planning and Zoning Meeting. Commissioner Wren made a motion to adjourn, July 12, 2016, Planning and Zoning Meeting. Seconded by Commissioner Sapp. Motion carried.
